PLURALITIES	852			852			1110

Hon. W. J. Fields, Congressman from the Ninth District, whose record has received merited endorsement.

Wilson Carries 38 States

Roosevelt Carries Six and Taft Four.

Wilson Gets 421 Electoral Votes, Taft 16, Roosevelt 87.

Roosevelt Badly Defeats Taft for Second Place.

First Democratic President Since Grover Cleveland.

Latest returns show Wilson wins by immense majority, carrying 38 out of 48 states. He received 421 electoral votes with a plurality of 334. Roosevelt runs away from Taft, the President only carrying four states.

KENTUCKY CONGRESSMEN

Nine out of the eleven Congressmen elected were Democrats, John W. Langley and Caleb Powers winning in the Tenth and Eleventh Districts, respectively, by greatly reduced majorities.

Turner Wins By Over Three Thousand.

Hon. C. C. Turner was elected Appellate Judge in this district by a majority of over 3,000. This is indeed a high tribute to our fellow townsman, as this district is normally about 10,000 Republican. Mr. Turner is receiving congratulations from both parties upon his splendid victory, and the Advocate congratulates the district in its wise selection.

JUDGE ALLIE W. YOUNG

One of the "big guns" in the campaign, and to whom is due a great deal of credit for Kentucky's enormous majority.

Woodrow Wilson.

Thomas R. Marshall.

That the people of this Nation are tired of a boss-ridden country run in the interests of the money kings of Wall street, was clearly demonstrated at the polls Tuesday when the Great Common People elected Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, President of these United States, and Gov. Thomas Marshall, of Indiana, Vice President, by an overwhelming majority. The tide for Wilson and Jeffersonian Democracy seemed to have extended from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the lakes to the gulf. From the latest bulletins it appears Wilson and Marshall have swept entire East. President Roosevelt seems to have run ahead of Taft for second honors, the Progressives making a remarkable showing, with the result as to second place still in doubt.

Kentucky again did herself proud by giving the Democratic ticket the handsome majority of 40,000 votes over both Taft and Roosevelt. And to Mr. J. N. Camden, State Campaign Chairman, and his associates is due a large part of the credit for this splendid victory.

Montgomery County 852 Democratic.

Owing to the untiring efforts of our hustling County Chairman, Hon. A. A. Hazelrigg, and the Committee, this county gave the ticket a plurality of 852. C. C. Turner's plurality for Appellate Judge in the county was 1110.

Roosevelt Carries Illinois.

Roosevelt carried Illinois by safe majority, and his strength throughout the Nation surprised the regulars.

Abolishes Public Cup in Interstate Conveyances.

Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh with one swoop abolished the time-honored public drinking cup from railroad cars, vessels and other conveyances operated in interstate traffic and from depots and waiting rooms of common carriers.

This sweeping order against "any drinking cup, glass or vessel for common use," effective immediately, is in the interest of the nation's health and was the direct result of an investigation by the United States Public Health Service—a branch of the Treasury Department—which holds the public drinking cup to be a menace as a carrier of disease. A drinking cup, it is said, may contain thousands of bacteria from disease-infected persons.

Mr. MacVeagh's action constituted an amendment to the interstate quarantine regulations. Sherman Allen, assistant secretary of the treasury, stirred by the revelations of the public health service and the fact that twenty-six States already have laws forbidding the use of the common drinking cup, recommended to move to Mr. MacVeagh and was sustained by the Solicitor of the Treasury Department as to the secretary's legal power to make the order.

Treasury officials recommend the traveler equip himself with a clean sheet of white paper which by adroit folding can be turned into an impromptu drinking cup. The "soldier's cup" of childhood days will easily serve the purpose.

Common carriers may now provide drinking cups only in case they are thoroughly cleansed by washing in boiling water after use by each individual.

Knowledge.

Sometimes one wonders if the world has forever lost its sense of peace and beauty, and if we are to whizz and yell and advertise till the end of time. Will simple pleasures seem tame and quiet ways unsuccessful? Or are we mad only for a little term, and will we return to spacious and serene things after this fever cools? Shall we soon turn from the clatter of these days, the temporal display, the unreal values set on position and success, the scorn of what is simple-hearted and generous, the haste and noise that drown out all gentle voices? It is time to recover our knowledge of the wind on the hills, the silent passage of a summer's day, the swift windswept procession of early autumn clouds, the sea in calm and storm, with the breaking waves that wear away the beach.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

The tax books have been in my hands for several weeks and your taxes are now due. Heretofore the Sheriff has not advertised real estate for sale for unpaid taxes, and in this manner has been carrying a great many people. In the future all taxes that are not paid within the time allowed by law, property will be advertised for sale, as I must protect my bondsmen. If your property is listed for sale for taxes you will have only yourself to blame, so come in and settle at once. W. F. CROOKS, Sheriff Montgomery County.

Sells Fine Horses.

Mr. R. B. Young sold and shipped last week two very fine bred saddle colts to Mr. H. T. Hundon, of Hoxie, Ark. The two colts were very fine individuals. Montgomery county horses are known all over the country and any time the breeders desire extra fine ones they come here for them.

Isaiah v. 7-16—Nov. 10.

"Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that tarry late into the night, till wine inflame."—Is. 56.

TODAY'S lesson had its primary force in connection with the affairs of natural Israel in the days of the Prophet. But when we remember that Natural Israel types Christendom, we find a value to this lesson very pertinent to our time. "And He looked for judgment [justice], but behold, oppression; for righteousness and, behold, a cry of distress." As to the national cry and the reason for it, see verse 8, which reads: "Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!" Here we perceive that a spirit of selfishness prevailed in Isaiah's day, as it does today; as then property was disposed to accumulate in the hands of the more successful, so it is today. As then landlordism took possession of vast areas, neglectful of the fact that "the earth hath the Lord given unto the children of men," and not merely to a few, so is it today.

A Time of Trouble.

Divine disapproval of human hardness, selfishness and neglect of poorer brethren, and forgetfulness of the fact that we are all children of one blood, amenable to the laws of the same Creator, brought upon the Israelites Divine judgments. We believe that the Scriptures with equal clearness tell of a great "time of trouble" now impending over the world, especially over Christendom—a time particularly mentioned by St. James, saying, "Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for the misery that shall come upon you."

This trouble is mentioned in today's study, verse 9: "The Lord of Hosts said in my hearing, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant." If we rightly appreciate what the Scriptures foresaw respecting times not far ahead of us, we will see that many of the great and rich will be in a sad plight in their countryside homes, as will be some of the poorer in the congested cities, for the time of trouble, it is declared, will be upon all.

Music, Revelry, Intoxication.

The text given us for today's lesson comes next in our study. In the days of Isaiah's prophecy many of the rich indulged in intoxicating liquors, music, revelry, etc., to their own injury as well as to the neglect of their responsibilities to God. They asked, "Am I my brother's keeper?" even as Cain asked this question. By their accumulated wealth they had more than heart could wish, while others were needy.

And how about today, is it the same? We answer, Yes, and no. With many it is the same exactly, but with a considerable number of the wealthy of our day it is very different, we are glad to say. Continually we have evidences that some of the wealthy consider their possessions as a trust from the Almighty, to be used in His service, and for the sake of humanity. But alas, there are comparatively few. The majority of the rich, like the majority of the poor, are selfish to the core.

When the selfish rich and the selfish poor shall join issue in a great struggle, as the Bible clearly declares they will do, then the world will see the time of trouble prophesied—"such as never was since there was a nation"—a time of trouble which Jesus declares will never be again, because following that great trouble, upon the ashes of the present civilization, Messiah will establish the Kingdom of God, for the blessing of all the families of the earth—the rich, the poor.

Thus Socialism, according to the Bible, will be the ultimate condition of the earth. Socialists, not aware of this teaching of God's Word, or if aware of it doubting it, propose to take over in the interest of all mankind the great blessings which are now in the hands of the comparatively few. To "Am I my brother's keeper?" appear dangerous.

Imprecable. To us it appears as the Scriptures indicate, that failing to accomplish their benevolent designs, Socialists will become bitter anarchists, and plunge themselves and the whole world into the most awful trouble ever known. We need the conversion of the world to a heart-harmony with God and the principles of righteousness.

Will this ever come? Ah, yes! The mouth of the Lord hath spoken it! But it cannot come through any power of ours. "Wait ye upon Me, saith the Lord, until that Day!" "For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the Lord, to serve Him with one consent." In His own time, following the great time of trouble, God will humble the world. Meantime the elect saints will be glorified, and with Messiah, constitute the long-promised Kingdom of God for the blessing of humanity.

Veal and the High Cost of Living.

A movement must be organized in America to conserve and increase beef animals. Not only must feeders see to it that the animal goes to the packing plant with the maximum amount of pounds, produced at the lowest possible cost, but a movement must be started to prevent the killing of calves for veal. In times past, calves, eggs, butter and similar farm products have gone into the market with too little concern as to actual cost of production. There was a living on the farm; the calf was for sale; the several or more cows produced enough milk for the family and the calves. The four or five dollars which the calf commands in the market has been just like finding the few dollars. The regular dairymen are still selling the calf to avoid the cost of milk feeding, and with little thought that cheaper foods will raise the calf, and at a substantial profit. The result is droves and droves of calves slaughtered for veal, that if raised and fed would overcome the present shortage in beef animals.

When the fish become thinned out in the streams, when the deer, the quail and other game become scarce, game laws prohibit fishing or hunting. Under such laws the marketer is stopped from buying a quail, even though the bird may have been raised as a domestic fowl and is offered for sale by the owner. Such remedy, if the laws are enforced, together with favorable conditions, produces abundant game for future hunting seasons. In order to carry out the game laws it is illegal to kill rabbits, except in the open season. Such laws are primarily in the interest of the hunter, but have been justified in the courts as competent exercises of a State's police power.

It would be regarded as governmental paternalism to apply such an effective remedy against the slaughtering of calves under one year old. If the courts held protective game laws to be right and necessary, a law to protect and promote the future beef supply would certainly be justified. Aside from how to do it, however, methods must be put to work to take veal, at least for the present, out of the meat market. The first move is a better knowledge as to economical calf feeding and the teaching of dairymen, who supply the veal market, that the calf presents a profitable opportunity for converting grass and feeds into beef. The knowledge of profitable calf feeding is well established, and to be had by all who wish to take this advanced, conserving step towards increasing the beef supply. —Lexington Herald.

NOTICE OF SALE IN EQUITY.

By virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of the Montgomery Circuit Court, rendered at the September Term, 1912, thereof, in the above cause, the undersigned will on the 18th Day of November, 1912

at 1 o'clock p. m., or thereabout (being Court-day), proceed to offer for sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, on a credit of 6 months, at the Court-house door, in the city of Mt. Sterling, Ky., the property mentioned in the Judgment, to-wit:

PARCEL NO. 1. Being a store house and dwelling adjoining the same, located at Sideview, in Montgomery county, Ky., said store house and dwelling being represented by two separate descriptions, but constituting, however, in reality but one piece of property, as follows: Beginning at a stone on the east side of the Mt. Sterling and North Middletown pike, corner with W. P. Staggs, Carrington lot; thence S. 34 E. 30 ft. to a stake, corner to L. A. Bryant; thence N. 38 E. 50 ft. to a stake, corner to same; thence N. 44 W. 30 ft. to a stone in Staggs' line, corner to same; thence S. 38 W. 50 ft. to the beginning, containing 1500 sq. ft. of land. Also beginning at a set stone, corner to the church lot in W. P. Staggs' line; thence with said Staggs' line N. 32 W. 7.10 poles to a stake, corner to said Staggs; thence with his line N. 42 W. 3.6 poles to a stone, corner to same; thence with another of said Staggs' lines S. 41 W. 11.2 poles to a point in the Mt. Sterling and Paris pike; thence with said pike S. 42 E. 3.6 poles to a point in the east edge of said pike; thence S. 32 E. 7.10 poles to a stone, corner to east side of pike, corner to church lot; thence with said church lot N. 42 E. 11.2 poles to the beginning, containing 1 rood and 7 sq. poles of land. Said store house and dwelling adjacent thereto are the same property conveyed to J. H. Turley by Thomas F. Trimble and wife, and described in deed dated December 29, 1903, and recorded in deed book 60, page 285, in the Montgomery County Court Clerk's office.

PARCEL NO. 2. Situated in Montgomery county, Ky., and beginning at a point in the middle of the Mt. Sterling and Paris pike, where the Sideview and Aarons Run pike intersects said first named road; thence with the middle of the Sideview and Aarons Run pike N. 77 E. 22.16 poles to an iron pin in the middle of the turnpike, a corner made for Gaitskill and Turley and Trimble; thence leaving the turnpike S. 12 E. 8.32 poles to an iron pin in the middle of the Mt. Sterling and Paris pike, a corner made for said Gaitskill and Turley and Trimble; thence with the middle of the turnpike S. 82 W. 18.64 poles and N. 75 W. 2.4 poles and N. 30 W. 5 1/2 poles to the beginning, and containing 95-100 of an acre of land, and being the same land described in a deed from Thomas F. Trimble and wife to James H. Turley, dated December 29, 1903, and recorded in deed book 60, page 285, in the Montgomery County Court Clerk's office.

PARCEL NO. 3. A certain house and lot of land, situated at Sideview, in Montgomery county, Ky., on the waters of Aaron's Run Creek and bounded as follows: Beginning in the center of the Mt. Sterling and North Middletown turnpike road, corner with land of St. Stephens Church; thence running south 169 ft. to corner with W. P. Staggs; thence running east 125 ft. to corner with same; thence running north 238 ft. to corner with said church lot; thence running west 172 1/2 ft. to the beginning, containing about 3-5 of an acre, and being the same property conveyed to J. H. Turley by Eva and Lewis Price by deed dated February 8, 1902, and recorded in deed book 59, page 128, in the Montgomery County Court Clerk's office.

The purchaser will be required to give bond, with approved security, for the payment of the purchase money, to have the force and effect of a replevin bond, bearing legal interest from the day of sale, according to law. Bidders will be prepared to comply with these terms. A lien will be retained on the land sold till all the purchase money is paid. Bond payable to Master Commissioner.

Capital Values of Agriculture, Manufactures and the Railways.

According to the estimates of the national wealth of the United States made by the Bureau of the Census the value of the railways increased but little more than half as fast as the value of all property from 1890 to 1904.

From 1900 to 1910 the capital value of agriculture increased from $20,439,901,164 to $40,991,449,090; the capital value of manufactures from $8,975,256,000 to $18,428,270,000; the cost of road and equipment of the railways from $10,263,313,400 to $14,387,816,099.

The gross value of the products of manufacture increased from $11,406,927,000 in 1900 to $20,672,052,000 in 1910. The total operating revenues of the railways increased from $1,487,044,814 to $2,750,667,435. Thus the increase of 81.2 per cent in the gross value of manufactured products was accompanied by an increase of 105.3 per cent in manufacturing capital; while the increase of 85 per cent in the total operating revenues of the railways was accompanied by an increase of only 40.2 per cent in their cost of road and equipment.

The capital value of agriculture includes all farm property, land, buildings, implements, machinery, and live stock as enumerated by the census. The capital value of manufactures, as defined by the census, includes the value of property employed for the purpose of production, excepting rented property, but does not include any allowance for patent rights or good will. The capital value of the railways used in this comparison is the "cost of road and equipment" as it stands on their books and as reported by them to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The report of the Bureau of the Census for 1900 indicated that the gross capitalization of the industrial combinations then in existence was more than twice as great as their capital value. The gross capitalization of the railways was about 12 per cent greater than the cost of road and equipment in 1900 and 28 per cent greater in 1910. The net capitalization of the railways, which is the amount for which they are responsible to the public, almost exactly coincided in 1910 with the cost of road and equipment.

Because of the peculiar nature of the industry, it is impracticable to arrive at a satisfactory and comparable estimate of the net return on the capital in agriculture. The greater similarity of the manufacturing and railway industries permits estimates of the return on capital that in a broad and general way are comparable. Approximately, the percentage of net return on the capital value of manufactures in 1900 was 17.119 per cent and that on the cost of road and equipment of the railways 4.650 per cent. In 1910, when the capital value of manufactures had increased 105.3 per cent, the percentage of net return was 12.041 per cent, while on the cost of road and equipment of the railways, which had increased 40.2 per cent, the percentage of net return was 5.729 per cent. That is, in 1900 the percentage of net return on capital in manufactures was nearly four times as great as that on the cost of road and equipment of the railways; in 1910 it was over twice as great. In both cases the interest on capital is included in net return.

While these comparisons are subject to qualification, it is not believed that, were absolutely accurate and comparable data available, there would be any substantial change in the general conclusions.

These facts and figures which are based on official statistics of the United States Government are from the just issued Bulletin No. 39 of the Bureau of Railway Economics.

1913 Models of The Indian Motorcycle

Following the "14 Important Improvements" of 1912, the Hendee Mfg. Company announce no less than a dozen additional new features in their 1913 model of the Indian Motorcycle.

By far the most significant feature of the new machine is the Cradle Spring Frame. It is something entirely new, a radical departure from the conventional bicycle and recent motorcycle systems of "springing." Briefly, the new device consists of the application to the rear wheel of the Indian Cradle Spring device as used on the front fork for the past three years.

Extending back horizontally from the frame joint cluster under the saddle, flanking the rear mud guard, are two 7-leaf Chrome Vanadium steel springs. The "C" shaped curls at the rear end of these springs are connected by stays to bell cranks on which the rear axle is hung. The forward end of the rear fork has a hinge joint which enable the rear wheel to yield to imperfections of road surface. All shocks are completely absorbed by the leaf springs. The rear wheel can go through almost any vertical motion without affecting the body of the machine. There is "no bottom" to this spring device. The life of the machine is greatly increased.

The Engineering Department of the Hendee Mfg. Co. devoted 18 months of exhaustive test to the Cradle Spring Frame before finally deciding on its adoption for all models of the 1913 Indian.

In addition to the Cradle Spring Frame, the 1913 Indian embodies 10 other important improvements which will be appreciated by motorcycle riders in general. Prices remain the same as last year.

New style, single clinch rims; larger tires, wider mud guards front and rear with larger splashers; casing for upper stretch of transmission chain and curve of sprocket; larger luggage carrier in rear, fitted to all models; foot rests, as well as pedals, fitted to regular 4 h. p. and 7 h. p. models; foot brake lever fitted on left side now operates band brake as well as the pedal action; larger size multiple disc clutch now fitted to all models alike; improved Indian type saddle.

All 1913 Indians will be chain driven and finished in Indian red only.

TOO MUCH DELAY.

We believe our readers will testify that we are not given to knocking, but unless we are very badly mistaken the work on the brick streets now being constructed, is not progressing as rapidly as it should. In fact, they would have been done by this time, had the work been pushed. Some contractors deserve sympathy and consideration. In this instance, however, the weather has been ideal and we see no valid reason why the work has been permitted to drag along as it has. We cannot hope for good weather much longer and every day should be made good use of.

We are glad to announce the arrival of our new street sweeper. The next thing in order is to put it in use.

MARRIAGES.

WEATHERS-GREENE.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Weathers, of Avon, Ky., to Mr. Cecil S. Greene, of this city, will be celebrated this afternoon at David's Fork Church, at Avon, at 3 o'clock. Mr. Howard Weathers, the bride's brother, will give her in marriage and the only attendants will be the best man, Mr. Thos. P. Sutton, of Mt. Sterling, and the groomsmen, Messrs. Thos. Greene, of Cincinnati; Wilmont Prewitt, Kellar Greene, and Hunt Priest, of this city. Miss Weathers is well known to many of our people, and is an attractive and charming girl and will be gladly welcomed to Montgomery county's social circle. Mr. Greene, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Greene, has spent nearly all his life in this county, is known by everyone as a young man of sterling worth and integrity, and whose genial disposition has made him a host of friends. After the ceremony the young couple will leave for a two week's trip through the South. Among those who attended the wedding from this city were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Halley and Mrs. G. B. Senff. The ADVOCATE extends best wishes.

STOFER-RINGO.

The wedding of Miss Mary Cobb Stofer and Mr. Harrison Bowman Ringo was solemnized at the Stofer home on North Sycamore street at 7:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening, October thirtieth, only near relatives and intimate friends witnessing the ceremony. Rev. A. H. Hibshman, of the Presbyterian Church, officiated and the ceremony was most beautiful and impressive. The wedding colors were green and white and were carried out with exquisite taste in the lovely home. The decorations were most elaborate, palms, Southern smilax and chrysanthemums being used in profusion. In the parlor the scene was solemn as well as beautiful. Between the windows was an altar of palms and Southern smilax and chrysanthemums lighted with stately cathedral candles, before which the bridal party stood. To the beautiful strains of Lohengrin by Grelle the party entered promptly at the appointed hour and proceeded down the long hall to the parlor in the following order: Miss Rebecca Kendall in light green embroidered chiffon over green charmeuse; Miss Jane Darnall, of Flemingsburg, in white marquette over satin; Mrs. John Stofer in flowered chiffon over green charmeuse, each carrying white chrysanthemums, and little Miss Agnes Stofer bearing the ring in a dainty basket of flowers. The bride followed on the arm of her brother, Mr. Jackson D. Stofer, while the groom with his best man, Mr. Henry M. Ringo, entered from the dining room and met the party before the altar, where the ceremony was said. The bride was gown in an imported robe of chiffon embroidered in Rhinestones and crystal over satin. The veil, which was unusually becoming, was caught under a coronet of lace and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was held which was attended by four hundred guests. Besides the wedding party, in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Silas Stofer, Mrs. John A. Judy, Mrs. Dan Priest, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Mrs. Walter Meng, of North Middletown. The dining room was most attractive in its wedding decorations, the table being in green and white with a lace centerpiece upon which rested a gilt basket filled with gorgeous chrysanthemums and surmounted with a tulle bow. The individual ices of chrysanthemums and the cakes and mints ornamented with orange blossoms were delightful and unique. Many friends assisted in the entertaining.

In the parlor were Mrs. Adair, of Lexington, and Mrs. Mary T. D. Kendall. In the hall were Mrs. B. F. Thomson, Misses Charlotte Rogers, Ella Priest, Mrs. John Roberts and Mrs. Tipton Young. In the dining room were Mrs. Grover C. Anderson, Mrs. Percy Bryan and Miss Sue Woods, of Stanford. At a table in the music room was a register and all guests were invited to register. In this room were Mrs. A. H. Hibshman, Mrs. John S. Frazer and Miss Nell How, of Cincinnati. Serving coffee in the living room were Misses Paulina Judy, Stella Robinson, Lodema Wood, Louise Lloyd, Mary Kemper Darnall, Emily Lloyd, Allee Young and Jean Kendall, Mrs. J. A. Vansant and Mrs. Howard VanAntwerp. In the upper hall were Mrs. W. A. Sutton, Mrs. Fred Bassett, Mrs. Abner Oldham and Mrs. Charles K. Oldham. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Ringo left in an automobile for Lexington, from whence they started on their wedding journey.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER.

The home of Mr. J. G. Trimble was the scene of a happy family gathering Monday evening, the occasion being a delightful six o'clock dinner given in honor of his daughter, Mrs. Thos. D. Jones, of Tampa, Fla.

BEAUTIFUL DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henton entertained Thursday evening in honor of Miss Sarah Weathers, of Avon, and Mr. Cecil Greene, of Mt. Sterling, whose marriage will be celebrated today. The party colors were yellow and white and the home, in Madison Place, was decorated attractively with chrysanthemums and plants. The table was adorned with lace pieces and in the center was a silver basket tied with tulle and filled with yellow chrysanthemums. Yellow shaded lights and bowls of colored confections were about and at each place were lovely little brass baskets tied with yellow tulle and filled with salted nuts. A delicious course dinner was served and there were many bright toasts for the popular couple. Mr. and Mrs. Henton were assisted in receiving by Miss Weathers and Mr. Greene and the guests were Misses Mattie Weathers, Helen and Nellie Hammon, Eva Nennelley; Messrs. T. P. Sutton, Keller Greene, of Mt. Sterling; William Dunn and Mr. Tallafarro.—Lexington Herald.

HALLOWE'EN LUNCHEON FOR MISS GARNETTE ROBINSON.

Thursday at noon Mrs. W. R. Thompson entertained at her handsome home on High street with a Halloween luncheon in honor of her niece, Miss Garnette Robinson. The house was decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The guests upon arrival were invited into the living room where they were served cider and ginger bread by Mrs. Marcia Hoffman. They were then asked into the library where each one was given a roll of red or green crepe paper and requested to make hats to wear to luncheon.

After much merriment various styles appeared in the dining room which presented a beautiful scene—here the decorations were in perfect keeping of the day. The room was lighted with jack-o'-lanterns and pumpkins in profusion. In the corners were bundles of corn stalks and leaves. The pretty round table had for its center piece an immense pumpkin filled with fruit and nuts, clusters of red and blue grapes overhanging. At each place were miniature jack-o'-lanterns and the place cards were in water colors with black cats and pumpkins. Pop corn and chestnuts were passed in small pumpkin trays and the sandwiches wrapped in corn husks. The luncheon of substantial and ices was served in four courses, after which interesting fortunes were told by Mrs. J. O. Greene. This was the last of the many October social functions given in honor of this popular bride-to-be. Mrs. Thompson's guests were: Misses Garnette Robinson, Stella Robinson, Paulina Judy, Louise and Mary Crawford Lloyd, Flo Shirley, Alpha Enoch, Julia Morris, Louise Morris, Anne Caswell Prewitt, Nell Tipton, Estelle Kennard, Nettie Horton, Sue Fisher Woods, Lodema Wood, Rebecca Kendall.

To Consumers of Natural Gas.

In answer to many inquiries, the management of this company is pleased to state that the plans which were made public last fall, for extending its main lines across the mountains of Kentucky to the West Virginia gas fields, have been put into execution; the work of constructing the line has been vigorously prosecuted—although from the nature of the country it has been a difficult and costly undertaking—and we are absolutely sure of its completion in ample time to furnish all consumers with a full supply. We deem it proper and fair to give our consumers this information so that they may know how definitely our company is faithfully performing its promise to use every effort to furnish them with a full and dependable supply of natural gas for many years to come; and also to notify them that after the regular reading of meters in the month of December, 1912, the rates will be advanced five (5) cents per thousand cubic feet.

Miss Pipkins Had to Consult It Before She Yielded to Augustus Hopper's Suit.

Augustus Hopper laid his heart at the feet of the wealthy, though uneducated, Miss Pipkins, and pleaded his passion with a wealth of oratory worthy of a cabinet minister or a racecourse tipster.

"My queen! my evening star!" he cried, striking an attitude of supplication. "Will you be mine? For months I have worshiped you with a deep devotion. I have loved you better than life. I have treasured every syllable that has fallen from your ruby lips. Now I can remain silent no longer, and I declare my passion in the earnest hope that my ardent affection meets with reciprocity and ratification. What is your answer, adored one?"

"One moment, Mr. Hopper," replied Miss Pipkins, as she crossed over to the bookshelf; "first let me consult my oracle."

And she reached down the dictionary and looked up the meaning of "reciprocity" and "ratification."

"Gustus, I am yours!" she declared a moment later, snuggling to his third waistcoat button.

TRAGEDY OF SWITCHBOARD

Atlantic City Operator Telephones Physician That She Has Been Stricken Blind.

Not until they heard a fellow-worker ask her family physician at the telephone to come to her aid the other day did several other young women operators in the telephone exchange at Atlantic City learn that she had been stricken blind when seated alongside them. "I've gone blind, doctor; won't you come to me? This is Miss Hiltner," one of the other operators heard her companion say. The girl had been unable to see for several minutes, and when she realized the extent of her affliction "plugged in" on the switchboard in front of which she had been working and established a connection with the home of the family doctor. As she disconnected the plugs after communicating with the latter, the young woman stood up and tried to walk across the room. She fell fainting. Several other operators ran to her assistance. She was revived, but refused to be taken to a hospital and insisted upon returning to her home so she might be there when the physician arrived.

POPULAR CINEMATOGRAPH.

From the tropical jungle to the Arctic circle, from California to the southern cotton fields, from naval combat to military warfare, the educational value of the higher class cinematograph production is as incalculable as is the degrading effect of the vulgar shows. But fortunately for the future of the moving picture, statistics prove that among the most popular have been the productions of "The Fall of Troy," "Macbeth," Tasso's "Jerusalem," "Rob Roy," Dickens' "Christmas Carol," etc. One of the most daring of all cinematographic exploits was achieved by the photographer who placed his machine on the verge of a flaming crater and gave to the world the "Eruption of Mount Etna," a more vivid impression than could be obtained from any textbook.—Exchange.

OLD-TIME BREAKFASTS.

"Breakfast has of late years fallen into disrepute. The breakfast rooms of Victorian politicians were the scenes of many a delightful orgy. Statesman pledged statesman in the flowing coffee bowl, and the most popular toast of the day was buttered."—"The Perfect Gentleman," by Harry Graham.

Are You Parting Your Hair Or Is Your Hair Departing?

Newbro's Herpicide

SAVES THE PARTING BY CHECKING THE DEPARTING

Watch the part. It is there that approaching baldness is often first detected. The parting looks uneven, unhealthy. The white streak is gradually growing wider. You may not notice this from day to day but watch the parting from month to month. As further evidence of what is happening look at your brush or comb. It is clogged with dead hair and dandruff after every combing. The hair is gradually dying and coming out and the streak is becoming daily a little wider.

The dandruff germ is doing this and the work of destruction cannot be checked until the dandruff is eradicated and the germ destroyed. It is a condition requiring the prompt and intelligent use of Newbro's Herpicide, if total baldness is to be escaped. The invisible microbe growth never halts in the hair killing process. In a short time a bare spot is seen at the crown of the head. The hair bulbs are robbed of life and finally there is no help but a wig. Don't wait. Herpicide kills the germ, gives life and vigor to the hair and prevents it from departing.

MY LOVES.

Do I love the gold of the sunset?
In the soul of my soul I do; and
I love the hush of the twilight
When the cares of the day are through.
I love the scent of the meadows,
The smile of the friendly stars, and
The light that strays from Heaven
Through the morning's crimson bars.
I love the dew and the clover,
The glory and strength of noon;
The lullaby of a mother, and
The baby's answering croon;
The crest of a snow swept mountain;
The valley of peaceful dreams;
The little cot by the road side
Where a home light softly gleams.
I envy you not, oh neighbor,
With your palace great and fine;
You have but a transient shadow,
While the wealth of the world is mine.
I am richer than ancient Midas
With his fabled touch of gold;
For prairie and hill and woodland
Their treasures to me unfold,
In the billow stretch of a landscape
Are gems too rare for a king;
And I know the voices of flowers,
And the notes that wild birds sing
I envy you not your millions
Nor your place in the world's great mart;
For mine are the songs and dreamings,
And the throb of a kindred heart.—Ex.

Justus Goebel Makes Strong Appeal for Protection To People's Interests

In Open Letter He Asks That Lawyers Known To Be Loyal To The Cause Of The People and Free From Corporation Taint Be Employed In The Suits Against Tax- Dodging Corporations

OPEN LETTER.

Frankfort and Covington, Ky.,
October 31st, 1912.

To His Excellency, Governor James B. McCreary; to all Administrative and Legislative officers of the State and to all citizens of the Commonwealth who are interested in equal and uniform taxation:

"Tell my friends to be brave and fearless and loyal to the great common people."

These last words of my assassinated brother, William Goebel, have a sacred significance to me and when in September, 1909, I again commenced to take an active interest in our State's affairs, it was not to gain political favor, for there is no office I would have; but it was with hope and confidence that my work would, during the administration of the present state officers, open up an opportunity for Kentucky to take up William Goebel's work where the assassin's bullet had interrupted it, and in that event every department of our government would give thereto by voice and action most positive, vigorous and loyal support.

Relief Must Come.

Necessity for action in the interest of the people has grown as years have passed until it has developed into what is to-day a crying shame and from which relief must come.

Too long, altogether too long, has there been unjust discrimination against the people, unjust and burdensome taxation upon the people, as compared with what has been required to be paid by the big corporations of our State. Corporation lawyers have boasted the death of William Goebel was a benefit to the corporations. If this was true, the question is, how much longer shall the people be held in bondage because of his death?

God knows the corporations now suing the State have been able to procure (and the word procure is used advisedly) immunity long enough from paying their just share of the taxes.

A hundred million dollar increase in the value of corporation property for taxation opens a new era in the State's affairs, and has awakened the people, and brought them to a realization of what has been done to them, and there will be a further awakening, which will correct abuses equally as great as unequal taxation. A true awakening of the people has come, and henceforth every man who would hold office must be a progressive, and no imitation will satisfy them; they will sweep aside and into oblivion as old chaff any man who hesitates or dares stand in the way of betterment of conditions and improvement in every way for the whole people.

Gross Undervaluation.

No one doubts, had William Goebel been permitted to live, that which was done last month by the Board of Valuation and Assessment would have been done more than a decade ago, and to-day, instead of the large corporations fighting in the courts and by sinister methods, endeavoring to perpetuate unjust and unequal taxation, to throttle the action of this State Taxing Board, the first to act fully in the interest of the people, they would long ago have been paying into the State, county and city treasuries their just proportion of taxes.

It is very evident that in Kentucky, as in other States, big corporations will never pay a cent more of taxes than they are made to pay.

Take the case of the C. & O. R. R. In 1911 this road, on its entire system in Kentucky, paid taxes on a total valuation of only $9,313,270, whereas the street railway company of the city of Louisville was made to pay on a valuation of $10,800,000. The C. & O. R. R. in 1901 paid taxes on a franchise valuation of only $2,171,189, and in 1911 on a valuation of only $2,743,

JUSTUS GOEBEL. GOV. J. B. McCREARY.
Kentucky Delegates From State at Large to DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, BALTIMORE, JUNE, 1912.

350, whereas the Board found their 1912 assessment should be $18,798,630. The C. & O. T. P. R. R. in 1901 paid taxes on a franchise valuation of only $3,110,197, and in 1911 on a valuation of only $3,559,320, whereas the Board found their 1912 assessment should be $10,674,200. The I. C. in 1901 paid taxes on a franchise valuation of only $1,989,870, and in 1911 on a valuation of only $4,510,320, whereas the Board found their 1912 assessment should be $14,746,857. The L. & N. R. R. in 1901 paid taxes on a franchise valuation of only $6,504,879, and in 1911 on a valuation of only $11,899,200, whereas the Board found their 1912 assessment should be $45,428,074.

The Covington companies in the past paid as little, proportionately, as did most of the above mentioned companies, and without exception all these companies and the two others suing wanted the same assessments for 1912 that they had in 1911. The Board of Valuation and Assessment based their 1912 assessments on convincing proof of values placed before them, and the assessments are uniformly just and fair, and of the more than four hundred corporations assessed, only seven have protested in the courts, and these are among those that have always proportionately paid the least.

In the last twelve years the State, counties and cities have been robbed, and the word robbed is the only word that fits the case, of more than ten million dollars in taxes.

In the years from 1902 to 1911, inclusive, a period of ten years, there has been an average increase in the franchise assessments of the four largest railroads of the State of only 1 1/4 per cent yearly, and this almost unbelievable record of astonishingly small increases was made in the ten best years for earnings that the railroads of this country ever saw.

The picture here presented of the previous inadequate franchise assessments is astounding, but when one examines into the situation regarding the tangible assessments made by Railroad Commissions of the properties of six of the corporations now suing the State, the word "astounding" is inadequate and must be here supplanted by the word "dumfounding" to state more correctly what the tangible assessment picture actually presents.

Work Is Delayed a Decade.

Take the case of the C. & O. R. R. and the records show that the tangible property of this company in 1892, twenty years ago, was assessed at $8,019,577. In 1911 notwithstanding the extensions made in mileage of road, double tracking of a vast system, acquiring much new real estate and probably more than doubling their equipment of engines and cars this company's tangible property was assessed at only $6,270,270, or 21 1/2 per cent less than in 1892, twenty years ago.

In 1892 the market price of C. & O. stock was around 11 cents, and to-day the stock of this company is selling at $1.5 cents, and the capital stock has been increased to one hundred million dollars. Further comment to show that our state has been robbed is unnecessary. The tangible property of the C. & O. T. P. R. R. was assessed in 1911 for less than it was assessed in 1900, and but little more than in 1890, notwithstanding the great improvements made by the company. The other railroads have been similarly inadequately assessed on their tangible property for many years.

In May, 1910, a prominent official of one of the companies suing, stated that the special interests had in years past controlled the state's taxing boards, and the records apparently prove he told the truth in that instance. He also stated that he would control the present Board of Valuation and Assessment, but in this he has proven an ignominious failure.

Board Acts For People.

To date the people have won, and the Board of Valuation and Assessment, consisting of Henry M. Bosworth, chairman; Tom S. Rhea and C. F. Crecelius, has finished its work for 1912, and, thank God, for once it has acted in the interest of the people.

Until this year the Board of Valuation and Assessment has been controlled in the interest of the big corporations by some hook or crook, either friendship, political favor rendered or to be rendered, bribery or intimidation, but never before has the state, county or city been given what it was rightfully entitled to.

The eight suits that have been brought against the state must be fought through all federal and state courts, and are of vital importance to our people. They involve for the state $382,389, and for the county and city taxing districts $823,396, or a total, annually, of $1,205,785.

The railroad companies, realizing the magnitude of this fight and anxious to win out, not alone from a financial standpoint, but to prevent the great public denunciation that is bound to come in the wake of a victory for the state, are calling up the wonderful array of legal talent that is at their command through the power and influence that comes of the tremendous amount of money represented in their combined capitalization of approximately one billion dollars.

Master Legal Minds.

Among the master legal minds that are already engaged in preparing the defense of the suing corporations are Trabue, Dolan & Cox, of Louisville, for the Illinois Central Railroad Company; Galvin & Galvin, of Cincinnati, for the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific Railroad Company; John T. Shelby & Son, of Lexington, for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Company; Col. Henry L. Stone, Helm Bruce, C. H. Moorman, R. A. Colston, of Louisville, and Browder & Browder, of Russellville, for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company; Beckham & McQuown, of Frankfort, and Ernst, Cassatt & Cottle, of Cincinnati, for the South Covington & Cincinnati Street Railway Company and the Union Light, Heat and Power Company; Maxwell, Ramsey & Graydon, of Cincinnati, for the Adams Express Company and for the Southern Express Company.

In addition to this galaxy of legal talent, the suing corporations have a vast army of busy workers who never appear in the limelight or in the courtroom, and they may be described as research lawyers, accountants and statisticians, who are a mighty supportive element to the men who will present the cases and make the pleas and arguments.

Without detracting one iota from the splendid ability and known loyalty to the state's interests possessed by the attorney general, James Garnett, and his three assistants, the commonwealth's legal force, as compared with that of the corporations, must seem inadequate, indeed; and when it is taken into consideration that the attorney general's office has a multiplicity of cases and matters of state to fully employ their attention, and that the present situation comes in the nature of an emergency unforeseen and unprecedented in the state's history, the urgent necessity for the employment of other able lawyers as a supportive force to the attorney general becomes quite apparent.

Ability, known loyalty to the cause, and assured freedom from corporation taint should be the gauge to govern in the selection of attorneys to assist in the defense of the state's interests.

Justus Goebel's Interest.

My interest in the work just completed by the board was, and is, different from, and greater than, that of any man in Kentucky or elsewhere—even though he may have been connected with the work. Love of my state and love for and memory of my assassinated brother, whose brain-work constructed and whose blood stained the statutes which made it possible to do what the Board of Valuation and Assessment has just completed, have compelled of me the service I have rendered in the matter, and without official duty resting on me, I have given untiringly and almost constantly more than five months of time, energy and study to these assessments in the interest of the state and its people, to the exclusion of every other interest—business and personal.

Therefore, with such an interest and with the knowledge that I have gained through my labors, I feel that I am qualified, amply qualified, to make an appeal, in the name of the 400,000 taxpayers of the state who furnish several-eighths of the revenue for the state's government, and who for many years have withstood the burden of unequal taxation, to the administrative and legislative officers of the state to support the governor with unlimited means for the necessary defense of the people's interest and cases.

There are men who have said in places that in the employment of Attorney John L. Rich the state had gone far enough, but to such men I would say, "Is your only interest the welfare of the people, and have you proven that there is no other interest that is greater with you than the people's interest?"

Every Citizen Interested.

We have been, and are, dealing in this with a matter which is vital to, and affects the comforts of every home, no matter how humble, and the pocketbook of every taxpayer in the commonwealth, be he laborer, mechanic, farmer, merchant or of any other rank or station. All have their interest in what we have been fighting for—more nearly equal taxation and relief from corporation oppression.

The question is, shall the cause of our taxpayers be defended at the bar of justice by an array of counsel of the correct standard and in keeping with the greatness and importance of these cases, which involve, not only $1,205,785 this year, but millions upon millions in years to come, and if the assessments are upheld, mean to this generation and generations yet unborn in Kentucky, lesser tax to pay, and to the state adequate revenue for every purpose of government, economically conducted.

"Most respectfully yours,
"JUSTUS GOEBEL"

Discouraged Citizens Will Find Comfort in the Experience of a Mt. Sterling Man.

Experience is the modern instructor. Profit by the experience of others. It may save your life.

The experience of friends and neighbors.

The testimony of Mt. Sterling people will bring renewed encouragement. Here is a case in point:

R. M. Freeland, 169 W. High St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I think that driving weakened my kidneys. The roads are rough and the jarring is enough to shake a man to pieces. My back began to pain and ache and my kidneys were not right. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Dheron's drug store, gave me quick and lasting relief. Whenever I feel that my kidneys need toning up I take Doan's Kidney Pills and they help me right away. No one having kidney complaint can make a mistake in giving this remedy a trial."

OPPORTUNITY.

Master of human destinies am I, Fame, love, and fortune on my footsteps wait.

Cities and fields I walk; I penetrate Deserts and seas remote, and, passing by Hovel and mart and palace, soon or late I knock, unbidden, once at every gate! If sleeping, wake—if feasting, rise—before I turn away. It is the hour of fate, And they who follow me reach every state Mortals desire, and conquer every foe Save death; but those who doubt or hesitate Condemned to failure, penury, and woe, Seek me in vain and uselessly implore; I answer not and I return no more.

STOOPS.

(By B. M. Goodan.)

Very little fall plowing has been done here.

Farmers are being delayed with their tobacco stripping.

Mrs. Jas. H. Gillaspie, who has been very ill for the past three weeks, is able to be out again.

J. H. Henson, of Mt. Olivet, Robertson county, is visiting relatives here.

If Stoops continues to grow, we will soon have to take on city airs.

Louise, the little daughter of Earl Reid, is very ill.

Joe Coons, of Lexington, was a visitor here last week.

Mrs. Albert Hudson is slightly improved, though her condition is still serious.

James Wells, aged about 60 years, died early Thursday morning, October 31, with a complication of diseases. He had been ill since August. Deceased was born near White Sulphur, Bath county, and was the son of the late Richard Wells. Jim was a hard working, industrious man, paying strict attention to his own affairs. On Wednesday morning, October 30, he professed his faith in Christ and was baptized by Rev. W. A. Hopkins, and was received into the Presbyterian Church. Twenty-three hours later death relieved him from his suffering. The funeral took place Friday, November 1, services being conducted by Rev. W. A. Hopkins. To the brothers and sisters who are left to mourn, this community extends sympathy.

Mesdames J. H. Alexander and J. T. Roberson are visiting relatives at Yale.

Mrs. Will Satterwhite, of Preston, came Saturday to visit relatives.

Tuesday night, October 29, the meeting at Springfield, conducted by Revs. A. H. Hibshman and W. A. Hopkins, closed. This was one of the most successful meetings held there during the memory of the present generation, and resulted in about 40 additions to the church, 25 of them being by profession. On the closing night 26 came forward and accepted Christ.

Ellen, the little daughter of David Moore, took very ill Sunday, with indications for diphtheria.

All the whooping cough patients are improving.

Rev. W. A. Hopkins goes this week to visit relatives at Wickliffe, Ky., and take his vacation.

Saturday, while Mrs. Levi Spencer was trying to bridle a horse, the animal suddenly seized one of her fingers and bit it off.

On Hallowe'en night the scholars of Miss Harriet Secrest's school, at Fairview, gave a Hallowe'en party, which was attended by a large crowd.

Ford's Profits $7,000,000.

To the Ford Motor Car Company, Detroit, Mich., belongs the credit of having made the largest 1912 net profits of any automobile concern in the country. Its production for the season to June 30 was at least 70,000 and probably nearer 75,000 cars which were sold at a net profit of slightly less than $100 per car, making the total profits amount to about $7,000,000.—The Automobile.

Young Lady Shot While Visiting Mrs. Wood Owen.

One of the most distressing affairs that ever occurred in Mason county, which may have a fatal ending for Miss Mabel Dunn, aged 20, a charming society girl of Noblesville, Ind., took place last Thursday night on the farm of Mr. Best Gault, near Murphysville, when the young lady was shot in the breast with a 38 caliber revolver. Miss Dunn, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Wood Owens, was a member of a coon hunting party. The young folks had gone out in automobiles to a point near where the shooting occurred and there met a colored guide with dogs, who started them through the farm of Mr. Gault. They had not gone very far when a shot was fired from the Gault home. The men in the crowd yelled to the shooter not to fire again as there were ladies in the party, whereupon a second shot followed which struck Miss Dunn in the breast, inflicting a serious wound, the extent of which is not known. Physicians were summoned from Maysville and Miss Dunn lay on the ground for more than two hours before being taken to the hospital.

Mr. Gault was arrested and placed in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Mike Brown, pending the result of the injuries to Miss Dunn. He is 41 years of age and is a prominent farmer of Mason county.

In giving his version of the affair he says he mistook the party for a marauding Hallowe'en party, who were after his wagons and available things on the farm, and that he fired to scare them.

Mrs. Owen, who was entertaining the unfortunate young lady, was formerly Miss Gladys Wilson, of this city.

Bascom's Shorthorn Sale.

Auctioneer Boyd reports the shorthorn sale of cattle, closing out the Slate Valley herd of the late A. W. Bascom, as follows: Five bulls, $31, $36, $42, $51, $55 each; 19 cows, at from $30 to $122.50 per head; 17 calves, at from $26 to $95 per head; 2 cows and calf at side, $30 and $70 respectively. There was a large crowd present and the bidding was fair. One thing noticeable was the lack of interest displayed by shorthorn men, none of whom were present with few exceptions, showing that the once formidable business is rapidly dying out in this section.

HENRY WATSON

Indicted For Serious Crime---Denies His Guilt.

The Trouble Grew Out of Land Deal in Jefferson County.

An indictment charging larceny and embezzlement in the sum of $2,695.36 was returned by the grand jury several days ago against Henry Watson, a well known lawyer and real estate broker of Mt. Sterling, the facts of which did not become public until recently when Watson waived arraignment before Judge James P. Gregory in the Criminal Court, pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and arranged for bail of $300. According to the information given out by James P. Edwards, one of the attorneys in the case, Watson came to Louisville several weeks ago to close a deal for the purchase of a farm in Jefferson county for Mrs. Bettie Knox, of Mt. Sterling, and the indictment grew out of alleged illegal methods pursued by Watson in negotiating the deal.

It is charged that he purchased a tract of land from George Schuster for $13,500, and that in completing the arrangements with Mrs. Knox he claimed that the purchase price of the property was $15,000. It is further charged that Watson claimed that he had to use the sum of $600 to bind the sale and that further he was forced to pay the sum of $559.36 as interest on notes outstanding against the owner of the property before he could get possession, both of which sums, it is alleged, were paid to him by Mrs. Knox.

After securing a title to the property Mrs. Knox came to Louisville and took possession of the farm, and a short time later, it is charged, she discovered irregular proceedings on the part of Watson. She consulted Attorney Edwards, and the latter drew an indictment and presented the facts to the grand jury with the result that Watson was indicted. Watson is well known in Mt. Sterling and other sections of Eastern Kentucky where he has practiced his profession for years.

The case was set for trial on December 10.—Louisville Times.

We desire to do Mr. Watson no injustice and gladly publish his statement of the facts in the case, as he claims them to be, taken from the Sentinel-Democrat:

"There is not a word of truth in the article that appeared in the Louisville Post and other papers Thursday afternoon. It is true that I traded $16,485.64 worth of notes belonging to Mrs. Knox to Mr. Schuster for a farm of about 120 acres in Jefferson county, paying $13,600 therefor, and that Mr. Schuster paid me the difference between the notes and the price of the farm, which was $2,885.64, and I paid Mrs. Knox every cent of this money and every cent that was coming to her and have her receipt for same, and am at a loss to know why she should have preferred charges against me."
